

PAUL RUDD'S ALL-STAR BOWLING BENEFIT FOR OUR TIME
LUCKY STRIKE, OCTOBER 23.

Did you bring your own bowling ball tonight?

"No, but I have my own wrist guard and my own gallon of Purell. Bowling balls are literally the filthiest things on Earth. Google it."

—Paul Rudd

GG'S THE GENTLEMAN'S BALL
IAC HEADQUARTERS, OCTOBER 24.

Do you take long to get ready?

"Not unless I bump into an out-and-out hissy fit where nothing looks good and I feel like crap."

Does that happen?

"I am an actor. My overwhelming vanity sometimes takes me by storm." —Ted Danson

SCREENING OF ALEX CROSS HOSTED BY THE CINEMA SOCIETY AND GREY GOOSE
TRIBECA GRAND HOTEL AND BEATRICE INN, OCTOBER 18.

Did you ask Morgan Freeman if he was okay with you taking on his character?

"I did not, because the man has also played God, and you don't call God and say, 'God, is it okay if I play this role?'" —Tyler Perry

111TH-ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION FOR BERGDORF GOODMAN
THE PLAZA, OCTOBER 18.

What's it been like working with Albert Maysles?

"As soon as my back is turned, he picks up all the pretty young ones."

—Iris Apfel

The Four Election Day Apocalypses

• Will 2012 = 2000?
• By John Heilemann p.14

Also: John Goodman, Funny & Sober By Jada Yuan p.55 / Mike Woodson's No-Nonsense Knicks By Will Leitch p.24

• Jonah Lehrer's Real Sin p.30 / Swing Voters of Hollywood p.7 / 'Girls' Artiste Jemima Kirke p.13

NEW YORK

NOVEMBER 5, 2012

IS

EVERYONE

ON THE SPECTRUM?

ASPERGER'S: THE MOST POPULAR—AND FLATTERING?—DIAGNOSIS IN TOWN.

By BENJAMIN WALLACE